The walk starts from the bus stop near the entrance to Buskett. Before starting the walk, you can spend some time exploring Buskett gardens. The road to Buskett is at the crossroads a few meters away from the bus stop.

If you have spent some time visiting Buskett, return to the walk route by facing the entrance to Buskett, then turning first right then left. After a couple of metres you will come to a Yjunction. Take the road on the right hand side and after a few metres, on the right, you can see a lane that leads onto a large rocky area. This is Ġallara Junction (prehistoric carvings). Walk along this path. When approaching the top you will see a large cave below. This is Ġhar il-Kbir (meaning the Big Cave). After having seen Ġhar il-Kbir, walk back to the footpath, turn right and keep walking straight. Explore this area to discover small caves which contain Punic tombs. Return to the pathway and continue walking straight following the signs until the winding road, until the road’s end, then turn right into a wider road. Please keep in mind this is a busy road.

From here, you can see the fertile Ġirgenti Valley below, and across the valley, Ġirgenti Palace. This was built by Inquisitor Orsino Viscontis in 1585 and now it is used as the country residence of the Prime Minister of Malta. Keep walking straight up hill toward the quarry. Next to the quarry entrance turn left and admire a wayside shrine dedicated to Our Lady. Keep walking straight on the left-hand side until you reach sign 1.

Walk on a few metres, on the left-hand side of the road, until you reach sign 2. Walking along this road you can get a view of both Ġirgenti and Verdala Palace, various cupolas and the coast, which is also visible in the distance. The country road winds amongst the fields where you may notice some farmers working and occasionally one may encounter a shepherd tending to his flock. As soon as you reach a Yjunction, take the road on the right-hand side. Soon you will come to a small opening amongst the fields. Take the right road. The path ends at the Annunciation Church. Next to the church stands a huge bronze cross known as Laferla Cross. This area is known as Is-Salti tal-Qaqla (the Cross on the Hill), this is an interesting place where one can rest and admire the countryside and most of the island below. The area becomes an area of devotion very popular with the locals during Good Friday and is especially popular for religious activities held on Maundy Thursdays.

After this short visit proceed along the downward path while going down the path you will notice 4 niches containing statues that depict stages from the passion of Christ. The path ends in Fawwara Road. Turn right and keep walking straight for a few metres. On reaching the crossroad, walk straight ahead. Soon you will pass by the Wed Zikku borehole. Take the road to the left of the borehole. The path is narrow and fenced by raised fields. Keep to the road on the left.

Continue straight ahead along this road. At the end of the road turn right. Soon you will reach the main road leading from Siġġiewi to Ghajn Lapsi. Cross the road carefully keeping in mind this is a very busy road and turn left. Proceed for a few metres and take the road on the right which will lead you to Ir-Kappella tal-Providenza (Church of Our Lady of Divine Providence). Visit the chapel if open and maybe rest a bit before proceeding to the last part of the walk. Once rested, with the church on your right take the road on the left. Walk straight downward and at the end of the road take the second road on your right. Walk straight ahead and at the next Yjunction turn left. Walk straight down the winding road. Continue walking toward the village periphery up to the road junction. Cross to the other side and continue walking straight along this road toward the village core. Follow signs 1 and 2, which will soon come into view. The walk has now reached the main square of the village.

Take some time to visit the Siġġiewi village core with the three churches (dedicated to St Mary, St John the Baptist and the Parish church to St Nicholas of Bari) which one can find here. The imposing façade of the Parish Church is as now stands is a credit to the architect, craftsmen and the local population who worked hard over the years to improve it.

The walk ends here. You can remain for a while and enjoy some food in one of the local pubs or village band clubs or else take the bus back to Vittoriosa.
